Total VET students and courses 2023

National Centre for Vocational Education Research

Highlights

In 2023, 5.1 million students were enrolled in nationally recognised vocational education and training (VET), up 10.8% from 2022. There were:

- 2.3 million students enrolled in nationally recognised programs
- 3.5 million students enrolled in subjects not delivered as part of a nationally recognised program.

In 2023, compared with 2022:

- student numbers increased by 10.8%
- students enrolled in nationally recognised programs increased by 6.9%
- students enrolled in stand-alone nationally recognised subjects increased by 14.0%
- full-year training equivalents (FYTEs) increased by 10.7% to 1.3 million.

An estimated 27.0% of the Australian resident population aged 15 to 64 years participated in nationally recognised VET.

Over the five-year period from 2019 to 2023, students enrolled in nationally recognised vocational education and training (VET) increased by 20.2%.

Students and full-year training equivalents (FYTEs)

Of the 5.1 million students enrolled in nationally recognised VET in 2023, some were enrolled in one or more programs, some in subjects that were not part of a nationally recognised program, and others in a combination of both.

In 2023, compared with 2022, students enrolled in:

- nationally recognised programs increased by 6.9% to 2.3 million
- subjects not delivered as part of a nationally recognised program increased by 14.0% to 3.5 million.

Note: The sum of students (n= 5.8 million in 2023) in the chart will not add to the 2023 total (5.1 million) as a student may have enrolled in multiple types of training in a calendar year.

In 2023, compared with 2022, students enrolled in nationally recognised VET increased by 10.8% to 5 056 845. Of those:

- 50.5% were male
- 3.5% were Indigenous
- 3.8% reported having a disability
- 22.3% were aged between 30 to 39 years old
- 22.5% had specified Year 12 as their previous highest education level.

Note: Caution should be used when using data with a high proportion of 'not known' responses.

Full-year training equivalents, or FYTEs, are a measure of activity undertaken by students on a full-time basis within a year. One FYTE is equal to 720 contact hours, which represents a full-time study load.

In 2023, compared with 2022, the number of FYTEs in:

- nationally recognised programs increased by 10.3% to 1 065 720
- subjects not delivered as part of a nationally recognised program increased by 12.7% to 209 190.

In 2023, 2.3 million students (44.9%) were enrolled in nationally recognised programs, consisting of:

- training package qualifications (2.0 million students)
- accredited qualifications (163 100 students)
- training package skill sets (115 285 students)
- accredited courses (113 260 students)
- subjects not delivered as part of a nationally recognised program (3.5 million students).

Note: The sum of students in the chart will be greater than the total number of students in 2023 (5.1 million) as students can enrol in multiple types of training.

Participation rates

In 2023, 27.0% of the Australian resident population aged 15 to 64 years participated in nationally recognised VET, an increase from 25.2% in 2022. The highest participation group in 2023 was students aged 15 to 19 years (46.2%).

Usual residential address refers to where the student usually resides rather than a temporary address a student relocates to for training, work, or other purposes.

In 2023, 27.2% of the male and 25.1% of the female Australian resident population aged 15 to 64 years participated in nationally recognised VET.

Funding source

Students

VET students can undertake training as a full fee-paying student or with the assistance of a government subsidy (government-funded).

In 2023, compared with 2022,

- government-funded students increased by 4.7% to 1.3 million
- domestic full fee-paying students increased by 12.2% to 3.9 million
- international full fee-paying students increased by 30.1% to 294 815.

Note: The sum of students by funding source in the chart (n=5.6 million in 2023) will not add to the 2023 total (5.1 million) as a student may have multiple sources of funding in a calendar year.

International fee-for-service funding is a customised grouping consisting of all international fee-for-service values.

In 2023, the majority of:

- government-funded students (84.8% or 1.1 million) were enrolled in training package qualifications
- domestic full fee-paying students (86.4% or 3.4 million) were enrolled in subjects not delivered as part of a nationally recognised program
- international full fee-paying students (84.8% or 249 870) were enrolled in training package qualifications.

International-fee-for-service funding is a customised grouping consisting of all international fee-for-service values.

Full-year training equivalents (FYTEs)

In 2023, compared with 2022,

- government-funded FYTEs increased by 5.8% to 560 560
- domestic full fee-paying FYTEs increased by 10.6% to 538 280
- international full fee-paying FYTEs increased by 29.6% to 176 065.

Note: International-fee-for-service funding is a customised grouping consisting of all international fee-for-service values.

In 2023, training package qualifications constituted:

- 87.5% (or 490 440) of government-funded FYTEs
- 60.0% (or 323 210) of domestic full fee-paying FYTEs
- 96.7% (or 170 195) of international full fee-paying FYTEs.

Students in nationally recognised programs

In 2023, compared with 2022, the number of students enrolled in nationally recognised programs increased by 6.9% to 2.3 million. The number of:

- government-funded students increased by 6.0% to 1.3 million
- domestic full fee-paying students increased by 4.0% to 868 955
- international full fee-paying students increased by 24.8% to 258 645.

Students in subjects not delivered as part of a nationally recognised program

In 2023, compared with 2022, the number of students enrolled in subjects not delivered as part of a nationally recognised program increased by 14.0% to 3.5 million. The number of:

- government-funded students decreased by 9.7% to 110 265
- domestic full fee-paying students increased by 14.5% to 3.4 million
- international full fee-paying students increased by 83.3% to 42 875.

Training Providers

Provider counts

In 2023, there were 3607 registered training organisations (RTOs) that had an active registration and delivered nationally recognised VET.

'Other' refers to 'Other Australian territories and dependencies' (for example, Christmas Island) and where the delivery location is not known.

The sum of training providers across state/territory and offshore delivery locations will not add to 'Australia' as a training provider may deliver in multiple locations in a calendar year.

In 2023, 77.6% of students were enrolled in nationally recognised training at private training providers, 15.1% at TAFE institutes, 10.5% at community education providers, 2.4% at enterprise providers, 2.2% at schools and 1.5% at universities.

Programs

Program enrolments

In 2023, there were 2.9 million enrolments in nationally recognised programs. The majority 91.0% were in qualifications, of which 84.7% were in training package qualifications and 6.3% in accredited qualifications.

Compared with 2022,

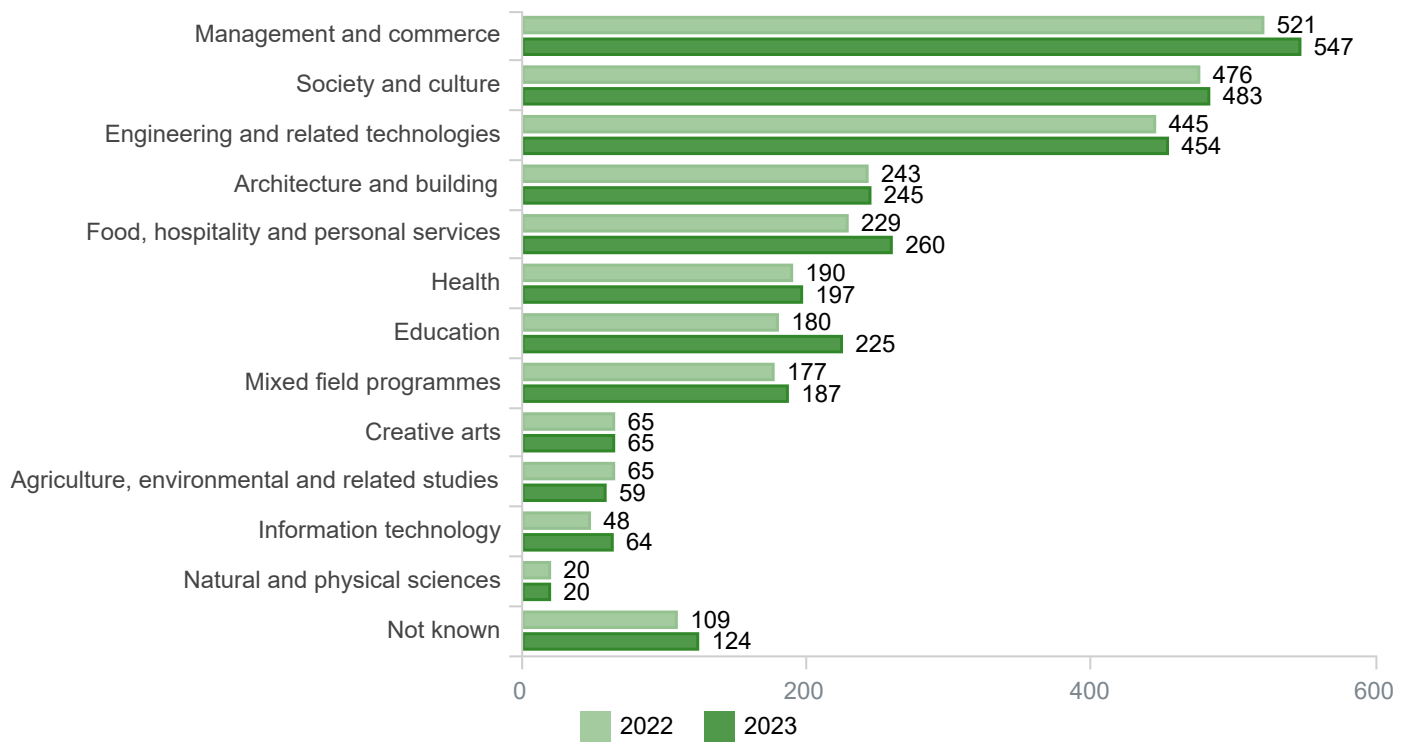

- training package qualifications increased by 5.6% to 2.5 million
- accredited qualifications increased by 4.1% to 184 965
- training package skill sets increased by 13.1% to 123 640
- accredited courses increased by 7.0% to 140 585.

Program completions

In 2023, 905 885 nationally recognised programs were completed. Of these:

- 83.0% in training package qualifications
- 4.6% in accredited qualifications
- 6.4% in training package skills sets
- 6.0% in accredited courses.

Qualification completions

In 2023, 793 485 nationally recognised qualifications were completed.

The highest number of qualification completions were at certificate III level (37.4%), followed by certificate IV (21.6%) and certificate II (21.4%) level qualifications.

Subjects

In 2023, there were 8.5 million enrolments in stand-alone subjects. The majority of which were delivered by private training providers (6.9 million or 81.7%).
